Celebration Travel

We also can help with special occasions

Special occasions deserve a special setting. Whether you're celebrating a wedding anniversary or a milestone birthday such as your 40th, 50th, or 60th, getting away for a "babymoon" in anticipation of a new birth, getting the family together for a reunion, or looking to pop the question, mark these special life moments with a memorable trip. Or maybe you might just want to get away for a short break and a bit of pampering to celebrate a recent success.

Whatever your celebration, whether you're travelling as a couple, with family or friends, there is no better way to create a moment in time that becomes the memory of a lifetime than with a special holiday together.

Why book with a CAA travel consultant?

You might think that you can save by planning your destination wedding or honeymoon on your own, but our consultants have long-standing relationships with suppliers. They can find the best deals, while also helping with the details, and the itinerary and accommodations are tailored for your specific needs. Plus, if a problem does arise, you'll always have someone to call.
